Go to see a doctor

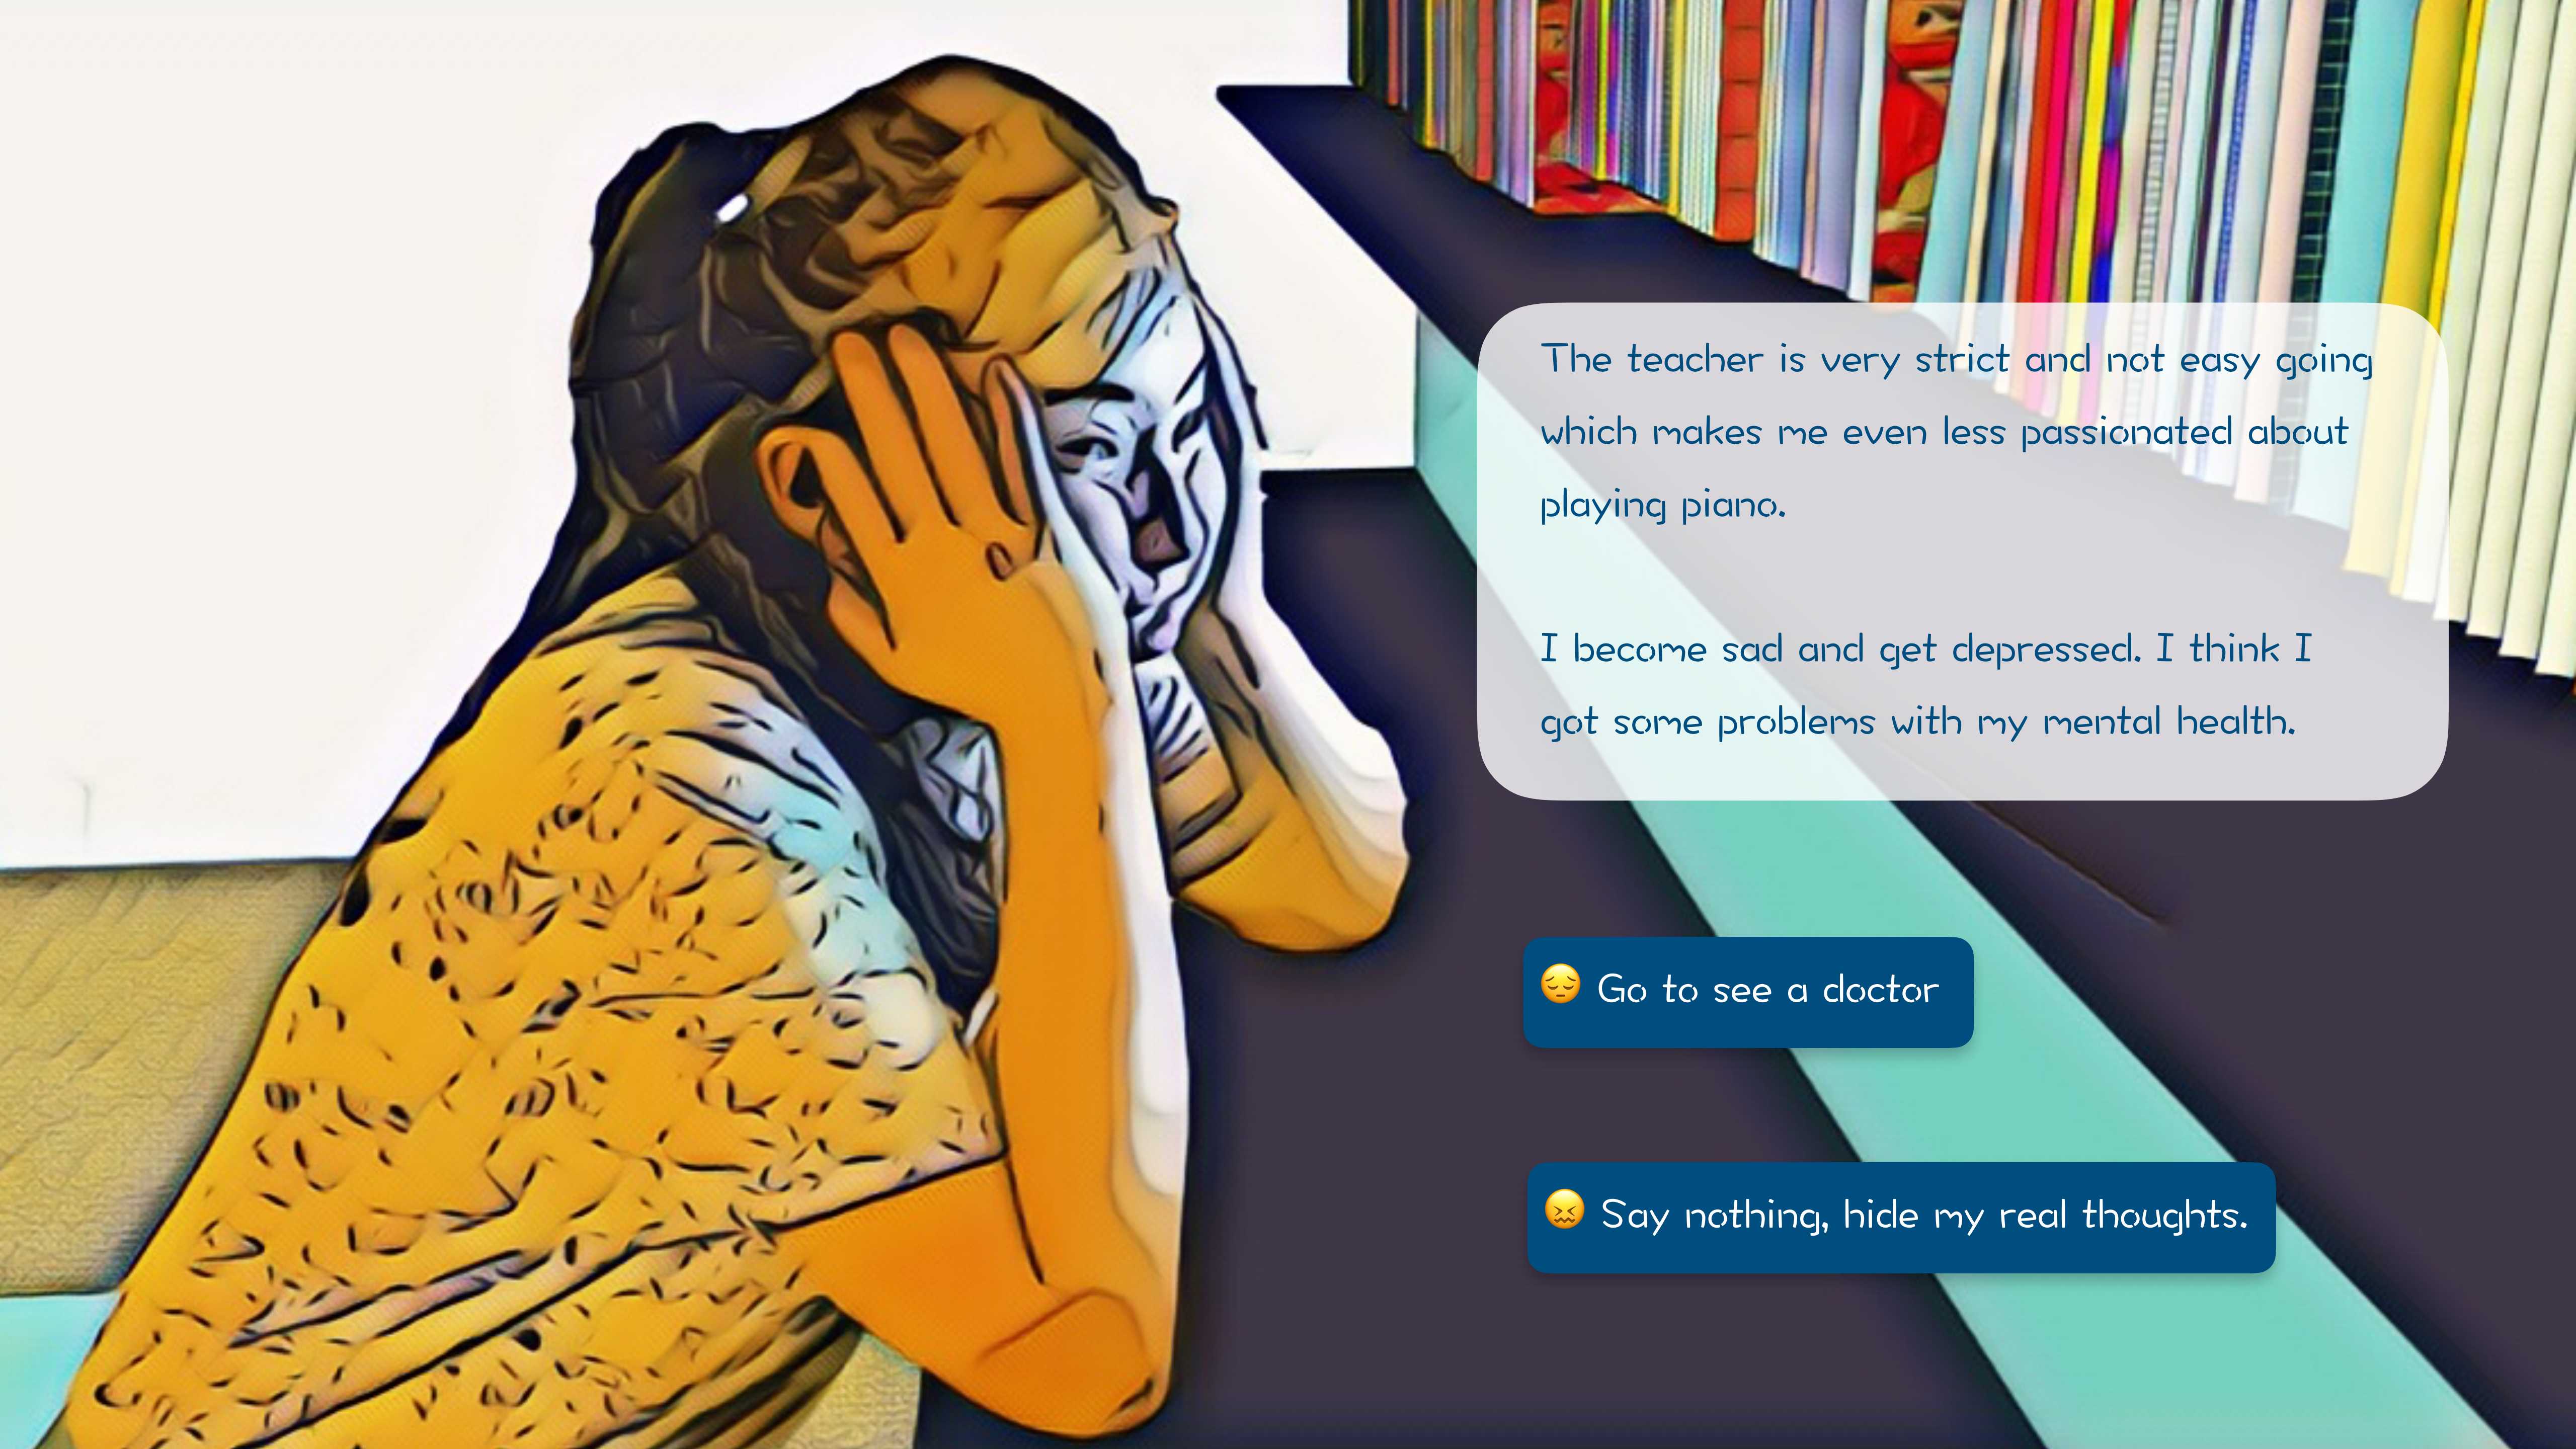

Say nothing, hide my real thoughts.

The teacher is very strict and not easy going which makes me even less passionate about playing piano.

I become sad and get depressed. I think I got some problems with my mental health.

😞 Go to see a doctor

😞 Say nothing, hide my real thoughts.

I did not become any better. As time passing by, I become more depressed. There is no hope in my life.
