

Actually, there is a concert
of my favorite singer coming up, do you want to go with me?

Go to the concert with Lucy.

Practicing the guitar as planned!

I looked up online. Luckily, there are many guitar clubs that are available to join! I contacted one of them through email.

Few days later... 🙄🙄

I got an email from the club:

"Hi, Lei! Thanks for reaching out. We are happy and welcome you to join our guitar club! Join in us for the meet-up tomorrow!"

I went to the club and meet many nice people. And I met a new friend, her name is Lucy.
